

Call the Museum at 573-883-3105 or email
info@bolduchouse.org to register.
Find us online at www.bolduchouse.org

Owned and operated since 1949 by The National Society of the Colonial Dames of America in the State of Missouri, a 501c3 tax -exempt organization, the Bolduc House Museum depends on the generous support of our visitors

Phone: 573-883-3105
Website: www.bolduchouse.org
E-mail: info@bolduchouse.org

125 South Main Street
Sainte Genevieve, MO 63670

Bolduc House Museum

NEW FRANCE THE OTHER COLONIAL AMERICA

AT
The Bolduc House
Museum

FIBER WORKSHOP

SATURDAY

JULY 27, 2013

8:30AM-5:30PM

8:30-11:30

Learn to Prepare Fibers

- ♣ Selection of fibers and fiber producing breeds
- ♣ Skirting the fleece
- ♣ Washing the fleece
- ♣ The dyeing process
- ♣ Hand teasing
- ♣ Carding

Rambouillet Sheep were raised by Louis XVI, King of France, who was beheaded in 1793

Dyeing Fibers

- ♣ Mordants
- ♣ Dyeing fleece and skeins
- ♣ Dyes: natural and chemical
- ♣ Colors
- ♣ Finishing
- ♣ Protein versus cellulose

12:30-3:30

Your instructor will be Debbie Cambron, who has a long history as a fiber arts demonstrator and historic re-enactor

Learn to Spin

- ♣ Technique
- ♣ Using a drop spindle
- ♣ Using a spinning wheel
- ♣ Twists and plies
- ♣ Skeining

3:30-5:30

Make Something with the Yarn

- ♣ Knit
- ♣ Crochet
- ♣ Finishing Techniques

Cost: $50/adult; $25/8-12 year olds

You registration includes fiber, the use of one of our spinning wheels, and a tour of our Bolduc House Museum. You can take home the yarn you produce. Drop spindles, knitting and crochet supplies are available for sale in our museum shop. Bring your bag lunch or plan to enjoy one of our downtown restaurants between 11:30 and 12:30. Water, iced tea and coffee will be provided.