

Want to come to one of the day camps?

Call 573-883-3105 or

email us at this address:

info@bolduchouse.org for a registration form to sign up your campers for any of our 2013 Bolduc

House Museum Day

Camps. Plan to send a sack lunch and a snack every day. We'll have drinks and the other

www.bolduchouse.org

2013 Day Camps

Bolduc House Museum

▶ Three exciting 5-day programs for kids

New France—the OTHER Colonial America

▶ Colonial Militia Day Camp & the Battle for Fort San Carlos

Join a company of the Ste. Genevieve Militia. Learn to drill, do colonial military survival challenges like fire starting, march to the river, shoot arrows, make a replica of St. Louis' Fort San Carlos, do crafts, play games, and make and shoot model cannons. On Friday afternoon parents and grandparents and friends can come to witness a reenactment of the Revolutionary War Battle for Fort San Carlos which our Ste. Genevieve Militia helped to win on May 26, 1780.

Monday -Friday
June 3-7, 2013
10AM-4PM
For Ages 8-12
Cost: $25.00

▶ Strings & Things Day Camp

Make rope, use a lucet to make a square cord. Learn to spin on a spinning wheel and a drop spindle. Knit a wash cloth. Do some different kinds of weaving. Make a basket. Make a simple doll. Learn to do some basic hand-sewing. Learn about quilting, lace-making, finger-knitting and much more. Find out how to dye fabric using plants like people did in the 1700's. Play all kinds of games indoors and out. Make new friends. Listen to old and new stories. Have fun.

July 15-19, 2013
10AM-4PM
For Ages 8-12
Cost: $25.00

Learn about New France here at the Bolduc House Museum. Become trained to lead games & crafts, assist in our historic gardens, and engage our visitors around the issues of our colonial community. It's a lot of fun

▶ Teen Volunteer Interpreters Day Camp

June 24-28, 2013
Campers aged 12-15
Cost: FREE—30 hours of community service to be arranged and provided by each camper

