

You can participate in the exciting effort to tell the story of New France—the OTHER Colonial America in the Spanish Illinois Country of Upper Louisiana. Here are some ways that your involvement can make meaningful and specific outcomes succeed:

- Join the 2014 Friends of the Louis Bolduc House by filling out the enclosed form and sending it along with a check for your membership level.
- Become a sponsor of Vieux Noël with a gift of $50 or more to be named in the display. Vieux Noël will be open from December 7th through the 30th in the Linden House Yard.
- Contribute to the cost of replacing the roof on the Louis Bolduc House, towards general operations, or towards a specific preservation or collections care project—call 573-883-3105 to speak with our director about where your interests and involvement will best match our opportunities.
- Find and like us on Facebook, Pinterest, and Twitter. When one of our posts catches your attention, like it, share it, and leave a comment. These simple free actions help to promote our museum to your friends and networks.
- Visit us online and in person. Bring your friends and family.
- Ask about becoming a regular volunteer in our archives, as a docent, and doing manual labor. Call the office at 573-883-3105 or email us at info@bolduchouse.org to learn how to get started.
- Host your next special event, party, wedding, or reception here.
